To the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court at their April Session at Portland in the County of Cumberland, 1844.

HUMBLE represents Harriet Colson, wife of a late Colson, late of Bangor, in the County of Hancock, Maine, that she, by the name of Harriet Williams, was lawfully married to said Colson on the eighth day of May 1837, and from that time to the fourth day of November, 1838, lived with said Colson as a loving, obedient and faithful wife should do; but that said Colson on said fourth day of November deserted your libellant willfully and without reasonable cause, and has since been absent for the term of five successive years and more, and without consent or collusion of your libellant or any intention on the part of your libellant, thereby to procure cause for divorce. She prays therefore that such measures may be taken that as is by law required in such cases for procuring for her a divorce from the bonds of Matrimony which now exist and bind her to the said Colson—and that the hearing and trial on this libel may be had at the session of said Court to be held at Ellsworth, in said County of Hancock, on the third Tuesday of July next. HARRIET COLSON.

STATE OF MAINE. CUMBERLAND, ss.—At the Supreme Judicial Court begun and holden at Portland, within and for the County of Cumberland, on the third Tuesday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

UPON the foregoing Libel, Ordered, That the Libellant give notice to the Respondent named herein to appear before the Justices of our Supreme Judicial Court to be holden at Ellsworth within and for the County of Hancock, on the third Tuesday of July next, by publishing an attested copy of said Libel and this order thereon, three weeks successively in the Bangor Whig, a paper printed in Bangor, the last publication to be thirty days at least before the sitting of said Court, that he may then and in our said Court show cause, if any he have, why the prayer of said Libellant should not be granted.

Attest: CHARLES COBB, Clerk. A true copy of the Libel and order of Court thereon—Attest: CHARLES COBB, Clerk. May 4. c83w

MISCELLANEOUS. Ode. Air—"Hail Columbia."

COMPOSED BY C. D. STUART, ESQUIRE, NEW-YORK. Huzza! the main in glory breaks, And Freedom from her slumber wakes,

And peals her trumpet to the skies; While loud a nation's voice replies, Huzza! to the auspicious day,

When brightly rose the star of Clay, And high above the stormy blast The bow of hope and promise cast,

And broke by Freedom's temple lane The remnant of Oppression's chain! CHORUS.

Firm beneath that steady light, Let us dare the low'ring night! Soon shall beam a brighter day, Neath the Star of Henry Clay!

From mountain high, and lowly vale, That trumpet swells upon the gale, And millions from their labor spring To bid the thundering echo ring,

And slowly break the clouds away, While yonder gleams the star of Clay— Our victor, who in might arose, And, o'er the heads of Freedom's foes,

The Constitution's banner flung, And Freedom's fearless challenge rung. CHORUS.

Firm, beneath, &c.

The Farmer rests upon his plough, The Artizan with a steady brow Beside his ringing anvil kneels; And while the deafening echo peals,

He breathes a prayer, and hails the day When brightly rose the star of Clay! Beneath whose mild, protective light,

The harvest fields again are bright; While commerce's wings spread o'er the sea, Bear on the trophies of the Free! CHORUS.

Firm, beneath, &c.

And not alone by Freedom's fane, Is heard that stirring trumpet strain; But far, amid the Grecian Isles, And where Bolivia's summer smiles,

What grateful millions hail the day When brightly rose the star of Clay! And o'er the tyrant's bloody throne,

With kindling light and glory shone, And left the bow of promise there, For those who still the fetter wear! CHORUS.

Firm, beneath, &c.

Then let us shout with festal cheer, And hail the name to freedom dear, And while our echo shakes the sky, Let every freeman's heart reply,

Huzza! to the auspicious day Which drove the stormy cloud away, And beaming o'er corruption's night, Restored the balances of right,

Where, soon, his hand our foes shall weigh, And turn their idols all to Clay! CHORUS.

Firm, beneath its steady light, Let us dare the low'ring night! Soon shall beam a brighter day Neath the star of Henry Clay;

From the Washington Whig Standard. Original Song. WASHINGTON CITY, May 3. 1844.

Mr. TOWERS: Will you have the goodness to publish the annexed song in the Standard. It was copied from an original memorandum in the hands of a friend (George Dawson, Esq. of the Rochester Democrat,) yesterday, at Baltimore, and sung in the great Ratification Convention of that day. Yours truly,

ANDREW M. BARBER. Tune—"Old Dan Tucker."

The skies are bright, our hearts are light? In Baltimore the Whigs unite; We'll set our songs to good old tunes, There's music in these same old Coons, Huzza, huzza! for the Coons are rising! Huzza, huzza! for the Coons are rising! Huzza, huzza! for the Coons are rising! For HENRY CLAY AND FREELINGHUYSEN!

The Locos' hearts are very sore— Though very scarce in Baltimore— For they begin to think, with reason, That this will be a great coon season! Huzza, &c.

Old FREELINGHUYSEN's a Jersey Blue, A noble Whig, both good and true: And we will make New Jersey feel That we respect her own broad seal! Huzza, &c.

Now let the Locos raise their dander— E'en Amos Kendall dare not slander— For when they get into the fight, Lord! how the Jersey coons will bite! Huzza, &c.

Old MATTY VAN is a man of doubt— He waxes in and he waxes out,

You cannot tell when on the track, If he's going on or coming back! Huzza, &c.

The Coon now looks abroad with pride— For who is there dare touch his hide? So give three cheers and as many more, For the noble Whigs of Baltimore! Huzza, &c.

United, heart and hand, are we, From Northern lake to Southern sea— From East to West the people's rising For HENRY CLAY AND FREELINGHUYSEN! Huzza, &c.

MONEY TO MAKE OUT; OR— The Evils of Debt.

BY MRS. H. M. DODGE.

'Unfortunate, indeed!—There is Col. B.' and I must meet him or cross over the street, which by the by I can do, with a very good grace, as there is a table on the opposite walk covered with fine flower pots arranged for sale. Really, that's too bad. He's crossing too, and I must meet him after all. I began to hope that I should reach home this morning without the honor of another dun.'

'Good morning Mr. Hall, how are you?' 'Quite well myself, Col. but—but my child is rather ill, so you will please excuse me, as I must be in haste.'

'With all my heart, Mr. Hall, but when you have a little leisure, we will look over our accounts, as I have a large sum of money to make out within a week; and shall therefore be under the necessity of calling in all my dues. Good morning.'

'Money to make out. This is the universal cry. Now, there is not, in the whole English language, another combination of words which can fill my mind with such strange gloom and terror, as that same 'money to make out.'

Should a bold assassin enter my chamber at midnight, present a dagger to my bosom, and bid me fight for my life, it would not horrify me half so much as the entrance of a kind friend whom I loved and could not pay, if I guessed he had money to make out.'

Were I in a frail vessel on the midst of a furious tempest, and should I hear the Captain say, after a long and desperate struggle of effort, that all is over, and we were sinking into the dark bosom of the deep, it would not unnervy me half so much as that dreadful 'money to make out.'

Nor if I hung on the tallest spire of St. Peter's Church, at Rome, and saw the whole vast building a mass of red flame beneath me, methinks I should not feel one half the strange uneasiness that maddens my brain when I am told, with a peculiar nod, there is 'money to be made out.'

Yes, and what would be, if possible, still worse, were I fastened to the fatal table of the Inquisition, watching the slowly descending swinging knife, as it came nearer—nearer—nearer—until it whizzed my very hair I am sure that a colder horror would not then curdle my life-blood, than that which out of the most fearful of all arrangements of letters, 'money to make out.'

Thus mused our genteel and richly dressed city mechanic, as he passed rapidly up Broadway, looking neither to the right hand nor to the left, lest he should meet some too familiar countenance. Just as he turned into the street which led to his own house he met a woman who was selling early strawberries. She asked him to buy. He thought he could not afford it, but the fruit looked delicious. He fumbled his pockets, and finally succeeded in bringing out a fifty cent piece. This would purchase enough for a fine desert; and any way, it was only fifty cents, if he was in debt, and certainly such a trifle could not affect him, so he gave the woman the only piece of coin he possessed, and directed her where to leave the fruit. He had walked on but a few rods, when a ragged, half-starved looking negro boy stepped into the path before him, and very impudently said his mother wanted the money he owed her for washing.

'Very well, my little man,' said Mr. Hall, who was sometimes rather complimentary when unexpectedly dunned, 'but I have no change to-day, though I shall have some this week.'

'Mother said she must have it now,' persevered the boy in a louder tone of voice. 'It's only fifty cents, air. She has some money to make out to pay her rent, and if it ain't paid by to-night we shall be kicked into the street in the morning.'

'Money to make out again!' groaned Mr. Hall, with strides which left the blackie far in the rear, and soon brought him to the marble steps of his dwelling. 'Who could have believed that the very mouths of the negro boys in the streets would open to pour upon me these words of shame and madness!'

He entered a large and handsome back parlor, threw himself on a sofa, and covering his face with his handkerchief, he charged the maid to admit no person to that room, and to answer all enquires after himself with a not at home.'

We do not know exactly what passed in his mind during the hour which he remained in that position—for he gave no other signs of life than a wild whisper of the word 'debt,' followed by a convulsive shiver, when the door bell was heard to ring, but we will take his own text, and thus innocently fill up this painful blank of time by imagining what the sermon might have been; and if our words are not the same precisely as those by which he expressed his feelings to his own mind, still we doubt not but there may be a very striking similarity between the ideas.

'Debt! Who is nursing a scorpion in his bosom, until the poison will taint his own blood, and madness or death will ensue? It is the man in debt. Who is clinging to the top of the unsheltered, eternal rock, gazing with bursting eye on the vast and wide expanse of ocean around him, and exposed to the pitiless vengeance of the wild elements, with no hope of escape? It is the man in debt! Who is sailing on the calm waters far above Niagara, and delighting himself by gazing into the clear depths beneath him, knows not his position until the changed motion and the staggering rapidly of his boat startles him with the dreadful truth that he is in the rapid, and is nearing with increasing speed the frightful chasm? It is the man in debt! Ah! and who is leaning over Atna's crater, and while he gazes down into the depths of the boiling flame, feels his foot slip, his balance lost, and finds himself sinking—sinking! It is the man in debt.'

At length our man in debt sprang upon his feet with an energy so wild and yet so determined, ed, that one might well have imagined that he believed himself suspended over the warring fires of the volcano, and fully designed to make good his escape. His eyes gleamed with new fire, and his countenance glowed with a strange brightness. He strode the room rapidly, and clearly evinced, by his quick glances from one thing to another, that some new and important subject was undergoing investigation in his mind. Once he paused, and carefully examined the quality of his coat and pants, the lustre of his satin vest, the fineness of his knee, and gold chain, which was the safe guard of a one hundred and fifty dollar watch. Then he glanced at his wife's piano, but quickly turned from it with a deep sigh, to a long and sorrowful gaze upon the flower pots in the back yard. The dinner bell at length broke in upon his reveries, and an unusual expression was seen on his countenance when he entered the dining room. He wife tenderly inquired the cause, but he only replied by a strict scrutiny of her cap, her dress, the furniture of the room, and lastly, of every thing upon the table. After the seats were removed, a beautiful glass dish, filled with strawberries and covered with cream and loaf sugar, was brought in and placed on the table. He started at the sight as tho' an adder had bitten him, and his affectionate wife again inquired the cause of his strange conduct.

'We are not able to afford such things Lucy,' he said quickly.

'Why, my dear,' answered Mrs. Hall, the woman told Betty that you paid only fifty cents for them.'

'Only fifty cents!' reiterated the husband, rising from his chair. 'The bill of our poor washerwoman is only fifty cents, and tho' she needs it to-day I cannot pay it in consequence of purchasing this unnecessary fruit.'

'Unnecessary!' repeated Mrs. Hall with a sneer.

'But wife,' added he, with a severe determination in his voice, 'there must be a change in our affairs. I cannot live longer as I have lived for a year or two past. I am dunned at the corner of every street, and am always afraid to look about me lest I should meet the eye of some one whom I owe. I am utterly crushed with debts, and there can not be a change we are lost.'

The pretty lip of the young wife pouted in silence.

This vote settles decisively that the policy of Protection to Home Labor is now to be considered the settled policy of this country. The great measure of the Whig party; so beneficent has it proved to the business of the country and the prosperity of the people and so thoroughly has the public mind been enlightened upon the subject that the Loco politicians have not dared, even where they had a majority of the votes, to do differently than to leave it as the Whigs formed it. Free Trade abstractions will now soon be out of fashion, and a permanent and settled and a wise policy in this respect be long enjoyed. Ait has been with this measure, so it will be with the other measures of the whig party when they shall have been fully tried, and the public mind is enlightened, and public experience has seen their beneficial effects.

Our neighbor of the 'Democrat,' the skillful editors of the loco papers in Maine, who have so zealously opposed the doctrine of Protection and said so many hard things against the Whig tariff, may now hang up their fiddles, and yield acquiescence to the will of the people, in the approval of this Whig measure.

'I don't see it,' as the clergy might say to the girl who left her apron out to dampen.

WHIG NOMINATIONS. FOR PRESIDENT, HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, THEODORE FRELINOHUYSEN, OF NEW JERSEY.

SEE FIRST PAGE.

Correspondence.

We publish below the letter from the Committee appointed at the State Convention to invite Mr. Clay to visit Maine, and Mr. Clay's answer. The people of Maine, whilst indulging sincere regret that Mr. Clay feels bound to decline the invitation, will duly appreciate and acquiesce in the reasons and conclusions indicated in his letter.

BANGOR, Me., Feb'y 13, 1844.

HON. HENRY CLAY,—
Dear Sir,—We have the honor to inform you that at the recent State Convention of the Whig members of the Legislature and other citizens of Maine, the undersigned were appointed a committee to invite you to visit this State, and, if convenient, to attend the Mass Convention to be held at Augusta the ensuing summer.
It gives us great pleasure to communicate to you this request, and to assure you that the unanimous vote of the Convention was but the ardent wishes of the Whigs of Maine, and that your acceptance of the invitation will give great satisfaction to the people, and add very much to the interest and enthusiasm of the proposed assemblage. We can only promise you a hearty and a heartfelt welcome within our borders, such as becomes an intelligent and independent people to extend to a faithful, a consistent and well tried public servant. The people of Maine have long known you in this capacity and they most earnestly desire an opportunity to meet face to face, the man who has won their confidence by years of unremitted toil in the public service, and by an unshrinking adherence to his principles, often tried in the thrice heated furnace of political persecution.
The time of holding the mass convention is not yet decided upon, and may be fixed to suit your convenience. The undersigned can only add that they, personally, and in behalf of those they represent, most ardently hope that you will find it convenient and consistent with your arrangements to comply with this request, and to gratify and honor and animate us by your presence.

With true regard,
We have the honor to be
Your Obedt Servants,

Washington, May 10th, 1844.
Gentlemen,—I have received, in duplicate, the letter which you did me the honor to address to me, in behalf of the Whig members of the Legislature of Maine, inviting me to visit that State, and to attend a mass convention during the ensuing summer. I should have been most happy, gentlemen, if I had been so situated as to allow me the gratification of accepting your invitation and visiting your State, which I have never heretofore had an opportunity of seeing; but I regret that the relation in which I have been recently placed to the people of the United States imposes upon me restraints which I do not feel at liberty to disregard. Of that relation you will have been advised before the receipt of this letter. As soon as it arose, I announced my determination to abstain from attending any political meetings during the pendency of the Presidential canvass. I hope, gentlemen, that you will approve the motives of delicacy and propriety and of deference and respect to the elective franchise by which I have been guided. That determination deprives me of the pleasure of accepting your invitation, and leaves me no alternative but that of expressing my profound and grateful acknowledgments, and of conveying to you personally assurances of the high respect and esteem with which I am
Your friend and obedient servant,
H. CLAY.

A correspondent in the Gazette, yesterday, not relating the fact that many who have heretofore voted with the Liberty party, will vote the whig ticket in the coming campaign, proposes to us several questions, as though we were bound to answer, and which he hopes we might attempt doing for the particular enlightenment of the writer, but for the fact that he attempts to rob an industrious mechanic, who, in more ways than one, has been endorsed by the Liberty party, of all principle in his political preferences, merely because he has seen good cause for giving his vote for the Whig candidates in preference to those of the Liberty party. This is mean.

As to the evidence we have that many Liberty men will vote for the Whig candidates, it is sufficient for us to say that it satisfies our mind, and when it becomes important for us to do more than this, we may attempt it.

The Senate, after devoting four or five protracted Executive sessions to the case of Mr. Tappan, on Saturday brought it to a close, after a discussion of about five hours. Clay Club at Houlton.

Signs of Houlton Saturday night, and a Clay Club enrolled seven names at the first meeting. It is intended to extend the limits of the Club to the vicinity of Houlton and a large association will probably be formed. The whigs in Aroostook county are wide awake and getting ready to do their part in the campaign and will deserve to share in the honors of the victory.

The following are the officers of the Club:—

Great Fire in the Woods.

The immense tract of woodland, on the line of the L. I. Railroad, 40 miles from New York took fire on Friday morning from the sparks of a locomotive. Some say that over one thousand acres of woodland are destroyed. The light was distinctly seen from Boston. The fire commenced on the north side of Deer Park.

More Rumors.

The latest Washington rumors go to show that a coalition has been formed between Mr. Van Buren and Mr. Calhoun by which Mr. Van Buren is to receive the nomination for President, and Mr. Calhoun is to hold the office of Secretary of State until he can succeed in annexing Texas, and killing the tariff!

What next?

Poisoned by the Leaf of the Pie Plant.

The whole family of Mr. Havens, of Bedford, were poisoned a few days since, in consequence of eating rhubarb leaves boiled as greens; and it is feared that two of the children will not recover. The leaf of this plant of which the stalk is used for pies without danger, contains a considerable quantity of oxalic acid.

The Frederickton N. B. Loyalist states that the Boom lately erected a few miles below that town, by the Frederickton Boom Company, broke away last week and sent adrift a large quantity of timber.

The Odd Fellows of this State will celebrate the Fourth of July at Augusta, Rev. E. H. Chapin, of Charlestown, Mass., will deliver an Oration.

The deluded followers of Joe Smith continue to pour into Nauvoo. One hundred and fifty converts from England passed through St. Louis, 24th ult., en route for the Mormon city.

A brig will be launched from the ship yard of the Messrs Holyoke, at Brewer, this mornoon.

Late from Havana.

By the schr Virginian, Capt. Finch, arrived yesterday from Havana, we have received our files to the 28th ult.
The Diario de Avisos gives a pretty extensive account of a great draught in Puerto Principe and San Diego, which has extended over all that part of the island. No rain had fallen for more than three months, and such had been the extent of the draught, that a large proportion of the cattle and stock on the plantations had been lost. The planters had been compelled to cut down the palm trees, in order to furnish subsistence to the perishing animals. The crops are suffering severely. Public prayers and proclamations are the order of the day.
The worms were making great havoc on the orange trees near Havana. [Savannah Republican.]

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 11, 1844.

The Senate was not in session.
In the House, as we learn from the N. Y. Express, a bill was passed appropriating $4000 for the support of the insane of the District of Columbia, with a proviso that they be sent to Baltimore, and that not more than four dollars per week be paid for their board.
A bill was then called up, making provision for the entire abolition of imprisonment for debt in the District of Columbia. The bill was favorably discussed until the usual hour for adjournment, and no doubt will pass the two Houses of Congress.

The Nestorians.

A correspondent of the New York Commercial writing from Constantinople, under date of March 27, says:
"The Nestorians are again returning to their country and homes. Those who were in the hands of the Kurds as captives are being released. The Pacha of Mosul, the instigator of the massacre of this interesting people, is dead. He had been plotting for some years for it, and always bore the character of a Christian hater. His successor, Shereef Pacha, is an excellent and mild person and goes to Mosul, it is believed, prepared to benefit the afflicted Nestorians."
The fool is not always unfortunate, nor the wise man always successful; yet never had a fool thorough enjoyment—never was a wise man wholly unhappy.

A philosopher being asked what was the first thing necessary to win the love of a woman, answered—"A fine suit of clothes, and a few dollars."

"I have three rules," said Lord Brougham. "The first is to be a whole man to one thing at a time—the second, never to lose an opportunity of doing any thing which can be done—the third, never to entrust to others what I ought to do myself."

The tenth, eleventh and twelfth parts of the Harper's edition of M'ulloch's Gazetteer have been received by Messrs Smith & Fenn.

DIED.

In Lincoln, 5th inst., after a protracted illness, Miss Nancy J. Jewell, aged 15, daughter of James Jewell, Esq.
The maxim of the ancients, "whom the Gods love die young," seemed literally verified in the exit "from life's prison," of this amiable young lady. The promise bud was plucked just as it began to blossom. Yet, young as she was, she met her fate with the heroism of Christie. Well known that the time of her departure was near, she was not, but waiting for the summons of her Creator. She had no other shadowy halcyon, but a bright and happy one. She had no other aim, but to be a complete triumph, even in the pang of death. On being informed that she was dying, she was her only happy thought, and then, smiling friends, while a hymn was softly sung, the serene grandeur of the unsetting unobscured soft lyran gently she fell asleep in the arms of Jesus.

May Higginson gratify the afflicted relatives, by resigning to the departed, and that shall be their consolation; though with regard to her one may well say, "the memory of the just is blessed."

WRIGHT'S
Indian Vegetable Pills.
The True Character of Counterfeiters and Sellers of Counterfeit Medicines.
NO Medicine has been introduced to the American Public, whose virtues have been more cheerfully and universally acknowledged by its popularity, and extensive circulation, than
"WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS."

To descend upon their various virtues at this late season would be a work of supererogation, since few who peruse this article will be found unacquainted with the widely circulated proofs of the real excellence of the Medicine, to which many will be ready to add the testimonials of their own experience. But if further proof were needed of the value of the remedy it might be found in the fact that no Medicine in the market has been so unsuccessfully and repeatedly counterfeited. Ignorant, envious, avaricious, and unprincipled men, here in different places, manufactured a spurious pill, bearing a superficial resemblance to the true article, but composed either of impotent or deleterious ingredients, which they have sought to foist upon the public as the veritable

Indian Vegetable Pills.
These fraudulent Swindlers could never pass off their vile wares upon the public but for the connivance and assistance of self-styled respectable Druggists, who, for the sake of a little "filthy lucre," lend themselves to the monstrous and unhallowed system of imposition. The counterfeiter of a popular medicine is more criminal than a coun-terfeiter of current money. The injuries done by the latter sink to nothing in comparison with those inflicted upon society by the former. We might point him wringing the mite from the hard hand of invalid penny which is extended for the boon of health, and receives instead the vile drug that pro-tracts and aggravates disease, or to view it in its true aspect, suffers it to rage unchecked. How melancholy is the reflection that thousands may have been hurried to the grave by having a counterfeit substituted for the true Medicine; who but for the venal fraud might now be living in high health, the delight and hope of the social circle.—
All classes are interested in putting down these vile Counterfeiters.

Let the Stores where they are sold
be marked and Shunned.

Let the virtuous indignation of the community administer to all concerned in these unfair practices a general and withering rebuke.

CAUTION:
The public will please observe that the genuine Medicine has the following wording on the sides of the boxes
PILLS."

—Indian Purgative—
OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE
OF HEALTH.

And also, around the border of a label will be found in small type, "Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1840, by William Wright, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania."

It will be further observed that the printed direction for using the Medicine, which accompanies each box, are also entered according to Act of Congress; and the same form will be found at the bottom of the first page.

The slightest attention to the above few particulars will serve to protect the purchaser from fraud, and save the lives of those who may otherwise be endangered by using a Counterfeit Medicine.

The public will also remember, that all those who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President
Of the American College of Health; and that Peddlars are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine article. All traveling Agents will be provided with a certificate of Agency as above described; and those who cannot show one will be known as base impostors.

The regularly appointed Agents can receive their supplies of the above popular pills, as heretofore, from the only Office and General Depot for the New England States

NEW PRINCIPLES OF PURGATION.
CORNARO'S
Purifying and Preserving
PILLS.

THE American public has for a long time been the victim of a false and dangerous system of medicine founded on the practice of LONG CON-TINUED AND UNREHEVED PURGATION.
The evils of this old system are of the most widespread and alarming character. They have reached through every vein and artery of our nation.
In every city, and village, and hamlet—in every State and Territory of our vast Republic, will be found those who have suffered, or who are still suffering from the injurious effects of this old system, of whose practical utility the disease, decay, and utter prostration of those who test it furnish the most condemning proofs!

COMMON DRASTIC PURGATION Scours out the system by the most improper and violent means, and then leave it, weak, low, feeble debilitated, to regain its strength as best it may.— Sometimes the consequences of this old Purgative practice are worse than mere Debility. Inflammation of the Bowels, Slow Fever, Bloody Piles, and other horrible disorders are produced, simply from the want of some enlivening and preserving power in the medicine employed. Sometimes the digestive organs are deeply and permanently injured by this coarse and unphilosophical practice, leaving the patient AN INVALID FOR LIFE.

The alarming evils and absurdities of the old system of Purgation, have led to the introduction of a new Life-giving Medicine, called CORNARO'S PURI-FYING AND PRESERVING PILLS, which are established on this new and only true principle of Purgation, viz:

NO PURGATION WITHOUT IMMEDIATE RESTORATION.

The use of this admirable Purgative remedy
strikes a death blow to that abominable system, which by continually evacuating the bowels without any conservative or saving power, so dreadfully and fearfully prostrates and injures the unhappy patient. These Purifying and Preserving Pills are believed to constitute the perfection of medicine,
being a UNIVERSAL VEGETABLE PURGA-TIVE, containing two great remedies combined viz: One remedy to PURIFY FROM CORRUPTI-TION, and another to PRESERVE FROM INJURY
AND DECAY.

And for the purpose of attaining the highest degree of purity in the preparation of these Pills, Dr Bradlee has, at a vast expenditure of time and money, invented and patented at Washington, a chemical and philosophical apparatus for distilling and refining vegetable extracts, called

THE SEVEN-FOLD FURNACE.
A powerful and novel machine—having Seven Fires
and Seven Alembics, with distilling, condensing, and evaporating fixtures of a new and ingenious contrivance, capable of obtaining more than seven times the ordinary purity of any vegetable extract heretofore used in compounding medicine. The Balsamic and Preserving power of these Pills is also, by this invention, highly purified and refined, and so mingled with the operative medicine, that it repairs all the injuries created by Purgation as soon as they are caused, and strongly fortifies the system against future corruption and decay.

Let the public be no longer deceived by the advertisements of the "one remedy" doctors, who show their entire ignorance of the organic laws of the human system by supposing that a medicine which purges merely, without restoring or preserving can be a perfect remedy. For it is a fixed and immutable law of our being that there should be, in no case, Purgation without immediate Restoration; and hence it follows, and is proved to demonstration, that all Purgatives which DO NOT possess a saving and preserving power, are injurious, and injurious only—
and possess NOT ONE REDEEMING QUALITY.

The whole theory of common drastic Purgation is based upon unnatural and absurd laws, and they who follow it fall victims to their own folly, and too late repent their temerity.

BEWARE OF UNRELIEVED PURGA-TION! Purge and Preserve, or do not attempt to Purge at all!

THE celebrated PURIFYING AND PRE-SERVING PILLS purify the body from corruption and preserve it from injury and decay by a single operation. They are a Universal Vegetable Pur-gative, of sovereign use in all diseases of the human system in which purgation is required, particularly in Jaundice, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Disorders, Liver Complaint, Fevers, Nervous Disorders, Inward Weakness, Cholera, Dysentery, Worms, Gout, Rheumatism, Female Complaints, Depression of Spirits, Debility of System, Fits, &c., &c.

Dr. D. Jayne's
FAMILY MEDICINES.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT
THIS invaluable medicine is daily effecting cures in the most astonishing and wonderful manner, and ever been known. All who have used it for Asthma, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup
and Suffocation of the Lungs, Difficulty of Breathing, every other disease of the LUNGS and BREAST, and do attest to its usefulness. BROUCHITIS, a cure which is annually sweeping thousands upon the earth to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of CONSUMPTION, is always cured by it. The symptoms of this disease, Bronchitis, are Cough, Sobreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and sometimes Fever, a Spitting up Phlegm or Matter, and sometimes Blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin or vessels, which run the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels, which run the every part of the Lungs. The Expectorant immediately
lysupresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.
It always cures ASTHMA. Two or three large cups will cure the CROUP, or HIVES of children, in minutes to a year's time. It immediately subdues the violence of WHOOPING COUGH, and effects a cure. Humors, have been given up by many physicians as incurable with CONSUMPTION, have restored to perfect health by it.
If this Expectorant be given in the commencement of PLEURISY, INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNG in acute RHEUMATISM, it does sufficiently large as to cause a little nausea for some time, going to subdue these affections at once.
PRICE $1.00.

Tonic Vermifuge.
WORMS IN CHILDREN. Of all diseases to which children are exposed, none are so fatal to them as Worms. Unfortunately, children are seldom free from them, and as they indicate the symptoms of almost every other complaint, they often produce alarming effects without being suspected. They are not only a nuisance themselves, but by their irritation excite other diseases, wandering from one part of the bowels, winding themselves up into large balls, and another, winding themselves up into large balls, and convulsions, and too often death. The desired remedy will be found in Dr. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUG which will very soon destroy the worms, and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return them. PRICE 50 cents.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSA.
This is one of the most efficient, pleasant and compositions ever offered to the public, for the various derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, and the only article worthy of the least confidence
during CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER CA-PLANTS, and in the above and following diseases really acts like a charm, viz:

Dysentery, Diarrhea, or Looseness, Cholera Mor-
Summer Complaint, Cholic, Griping Pain, Sour Stom-
Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Water-Pain or Sickness of the Stomach, Vomiting, Spitting of food after eating, and also where it possibly the body unchanged; Want of Appetite, Restlessness and Inability to Sleep, Wind in the Stomach and Belly, Hysterics, Cramp, Nervous Tremor and Tingings, Sea Sickness, Faintings, Melancholy and Low of Spirits, Fretting and Crying of Infants, and all Bowel Affections and Nervous Diseases.
PRICE 50 cents.

Hair Tonic.
NO EXCUSE FOR A BALD HEAD. Since the important discovery of Dr. JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC, one may, if they choose, preserve their hair from falling off, or if already bald, may, with certainty, have hair restored again by a faithful and persevering use of this valuable HAIR TONIC.

It is to be used without prejudice the following communication, which, in addition to hundreds of equally respectable, should remove the doubts of reasonable persons of the uniform and singular effect of JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.

HAMILTON, Feb. 15, 1844.
Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: I cannot say my hair restored, but I can say that it appears to be in a process of restoration as could reasonably be expected. I had not finished the first bottle, before a change was manifest over the bald part of the head which it was applied. A new growth of fine hair, much like that of an infant, appeared, and continued to increase, and I have had it cut two or three times. I have recently commenced upon the third bottle, but have been a good deal irregular in the use of the Tonic from the first, and from this cause I appear the effect is at present less than it otherwise would have been.

I began the use of the Tonic with little or no that it would ever be successful on my head, though felt entire confidence in your statements of what done for others; and I was as much surprised at lighted when I saw the effect. You recollect the poor man of my head when in your office. I assure the hair has been nearly, if not quite, an inch in the times I have had it cut, on those parts which nearly destitute of any when you saw me. It was over, very fine, though quite thick. I am flushed sanguine hopes of final success, in the diligent your Tonic, which, amidst all the hair wagers have been advertised in the papers, I am constrained believe is what it claims to be, and that it will the hair grow, and no mistake, at least on so bald a head.

Jayne's Sanative Pills.
These Pills are an excellent mild and safe pur-gative, and are exceedingly useful in Dyspepsia obstructions of the Liver. Persons taking them and drink as usual, without fear of injury, and of infinite advantage, making the use of mercurial drugs, so frequently used in derangements of stomach and liver, unnecessary.

These Pills may be taken at all times, and are believed in nearly all diseases. They have long been a case-purification of the system, for all obstructions of the Liver, Spleen, Kidneys, Uterus, and all other of the body—Inflammatory, Intermittent, Remittent, Bilious, and every other form of Fever—Jaundice Liver Complaint. For Dyspepsia they are really a valuable article, gradually changing the vitiated contents of the stomach, and producing healthy solutions of the food, and for what is commonly called that important organ. They are very valuable in cases of the Skin, and for what is commonly called purity of the blood; and also for Female Complaints, menstrual, &c., &c., and in fact for every disease in which Aperient, Alterative or Purgative medicine is required. Four pills, three or four times a day, will of DYSPEPSIA POSITIVELY CAN BE CURED
persevering use of this valuable SANATIVE.

They are expressly prepared to be used as an ent, when purging is necessary, while using the Tonic, and for the removal of obstructions in the which are often attendant on some of the diseases of the Bowels.

Prepared only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia.
